

REPTILES <http://www.peoriazoo.org/reptiles.html>

Green Tree Python

Morelia viridis

Peoria Zoo Exhibit Historic Entry Building
<http://www.peoriazoo.org/exhibits.html>

Habitat: Rainforests, bushes, shrubs

Range: Found in Indonesia, Papua New Guinea and Australia

Activity Cycle: Nocturnal-active at night

Size: Between 3-4 feet is average

Social Structure: They are solitary

Distinguishing Features: The color pattern is vivid green with a broken vertebral stripe of white or dull yellow

Diet: Small mammals, such as rodents, and sometimes reptiles

Life Span: 10+years

Did you know?

Hatchlings are usually lemon yellow, gradually changing to the green color of the adults as they grow.