

Species Fact Sheet

REPTILES <http://www.peoriazoo.org/reptiles.html>

Pueblan Milksnake

Lampropeltis triangulum campbelli

Peoria Zoo Exhibit Historic Entry Building
<http://www.peoriazoo.org/exhibits.html>

Habitat: Rocks with crevices

Range: Found in southern Puebla, eastern Morelos and northern Oaxaca, Mexico

Activity Cycle: Nocturnal-active at night

Size: Between 2-3 feet

Social Structure: They are solitary

Distinguishing Features: Bright colors and broad bands of red, black and white

Diet: Vertebrates such as frogs, lizards, birds, rodents, and bats-even other snakes

Life Span: 10+years

Did you know?

Pueblan milksnakes are non-venomous, though they have a similar color pattern as Coral Snakes which are venomous.