

Species Fact Sheet

REPTILES <http://www.peoriazoo.org/reptiles.html>

Spotted Python

Antaresia maculosa

Peoria Zoo Exhibit Historic Entry Building

<http://www.peoriazoo.org/exhibits.html>

Habitat: Dry and wet forests, can fields and rocky areas

Range: East coast of Queensland in Australia and nearby islands

Activity Cycle: Active during feeding times

Size: Between 3-4 feet and 2-3 pounds

Social Structure: They are solitary

Distinguishing Features: Dark blotches with an irregular shape and jagged edge

Diet: Vertebrates such as frogs, lizards, birds, rodents, and bats

Life Span: 10+years

Did you know?

They are often found around houses where they can find rats and mice.